*TWENTY-THIRD EDITION
GIBSONBURG HIGH SCHOOL
GIBSONBURG, OHIO*

Dedication

The Class of 1970 proudly dedicate the 1970 Bears' Tale to our principal Mr. Fred Kniesly.

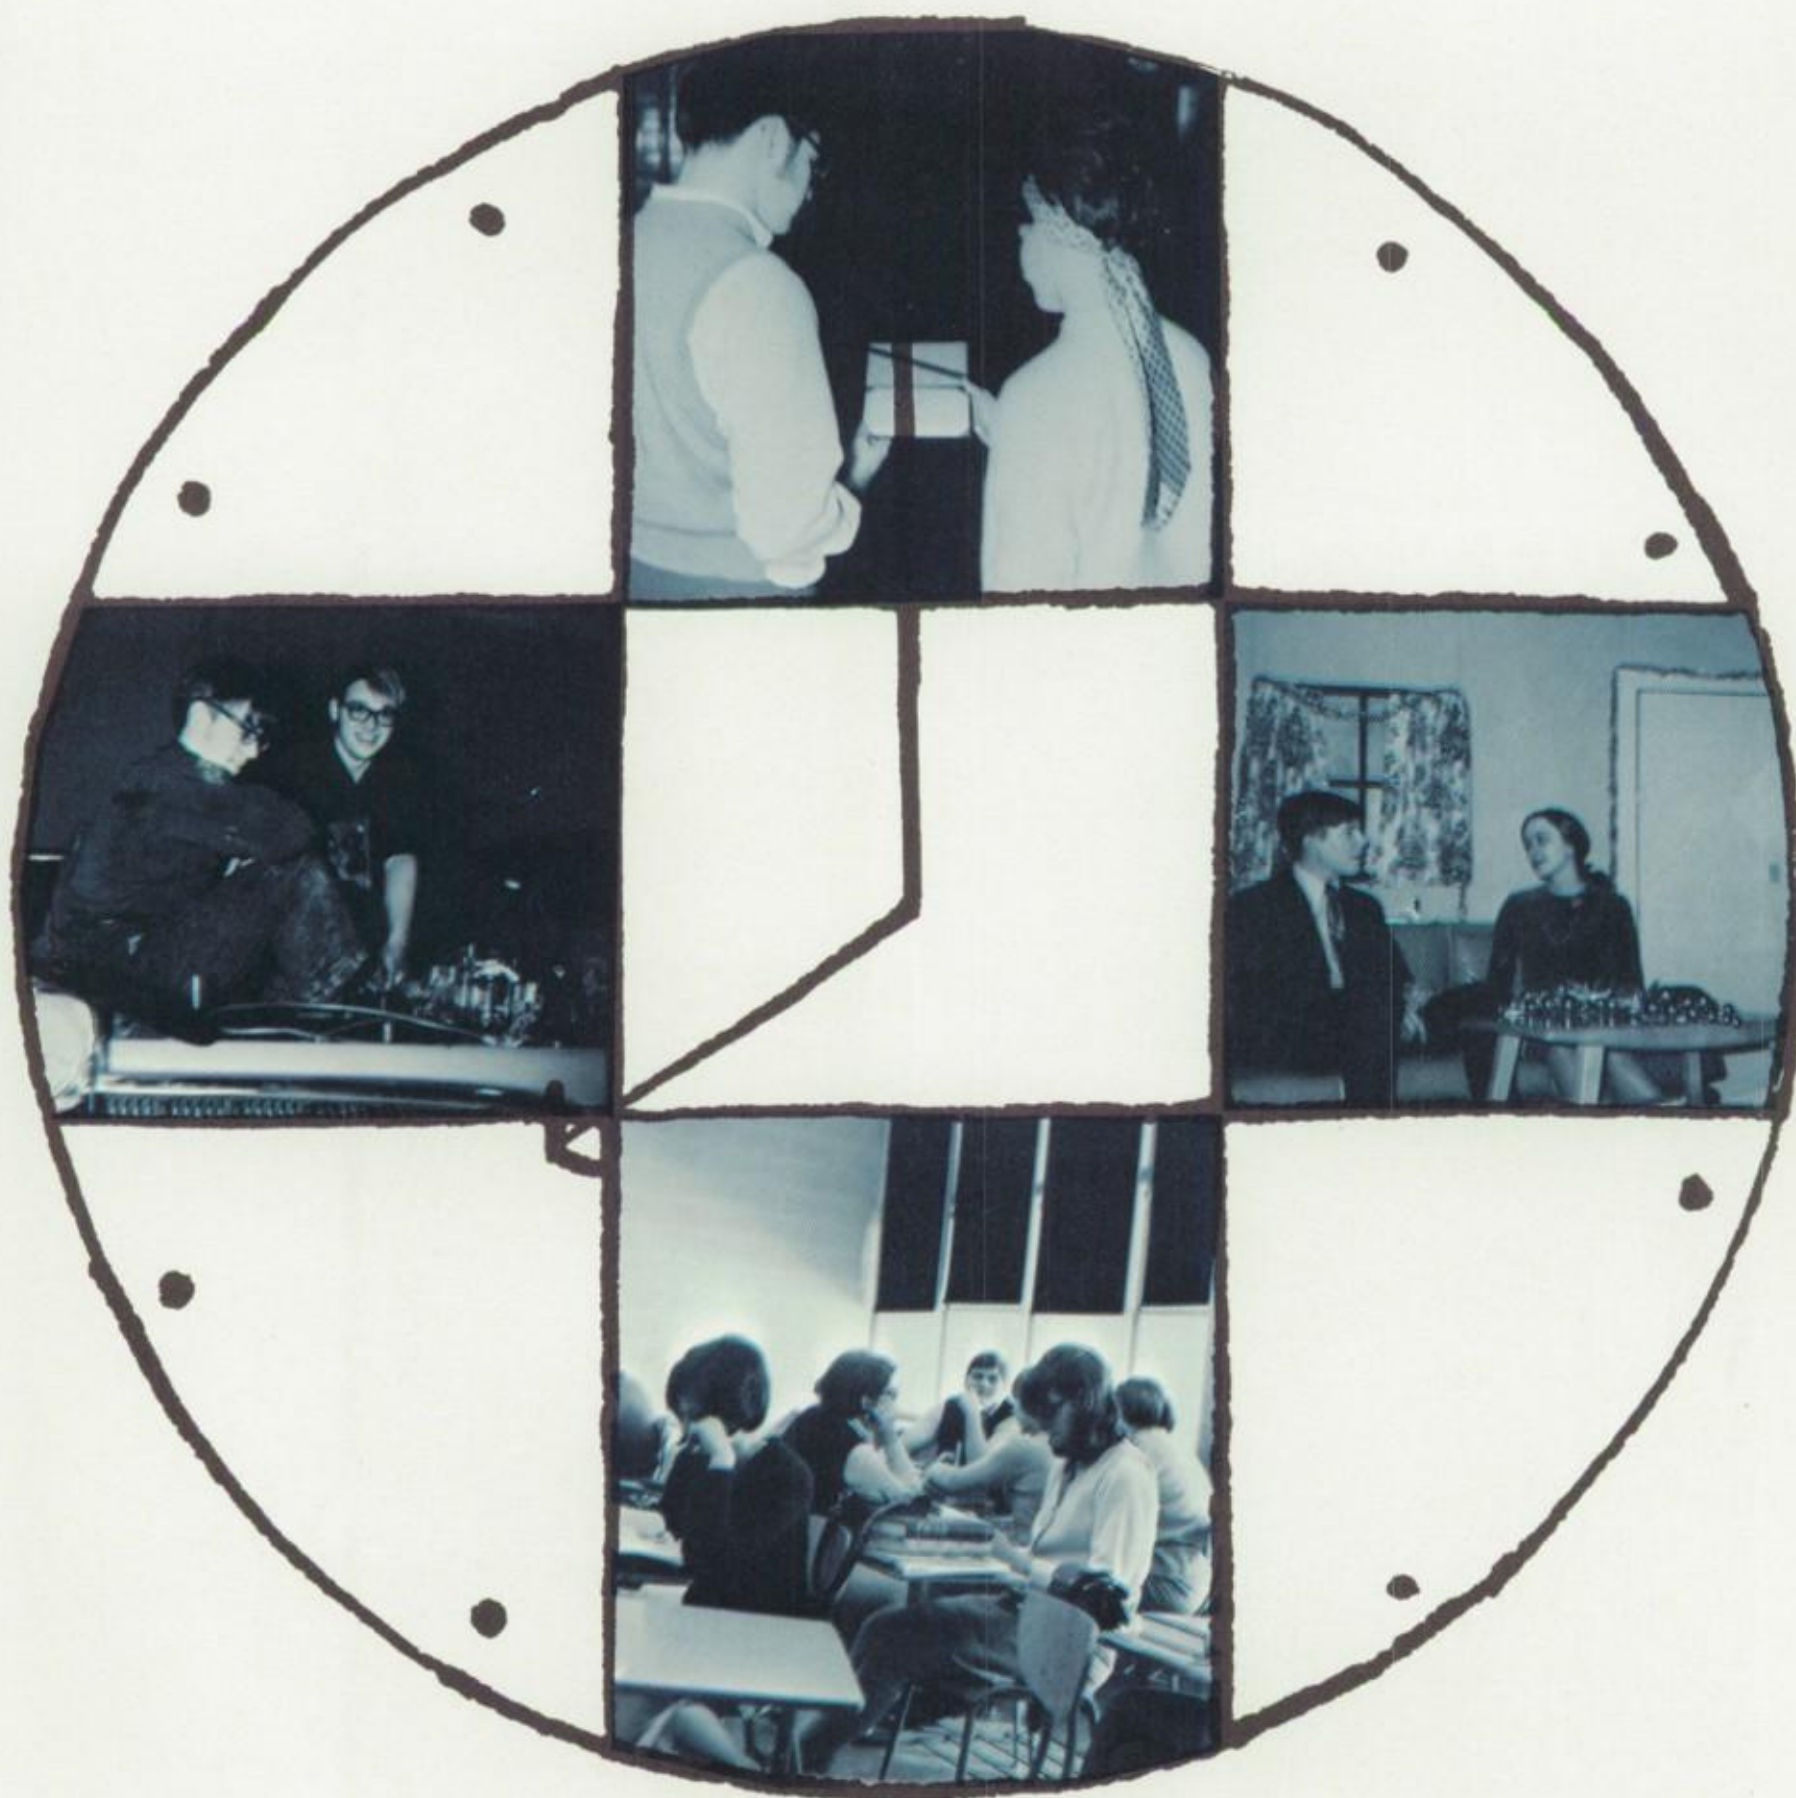

Pictured ABOVE is Mr. & Mrs. Kniesly and their daughter Angela Marie.

Last year, 1968-69, Mr. Kniesly came to be our principal for the second semester. He is also holding the position for the 1969-70 school year. Here he is shown busy in the library.

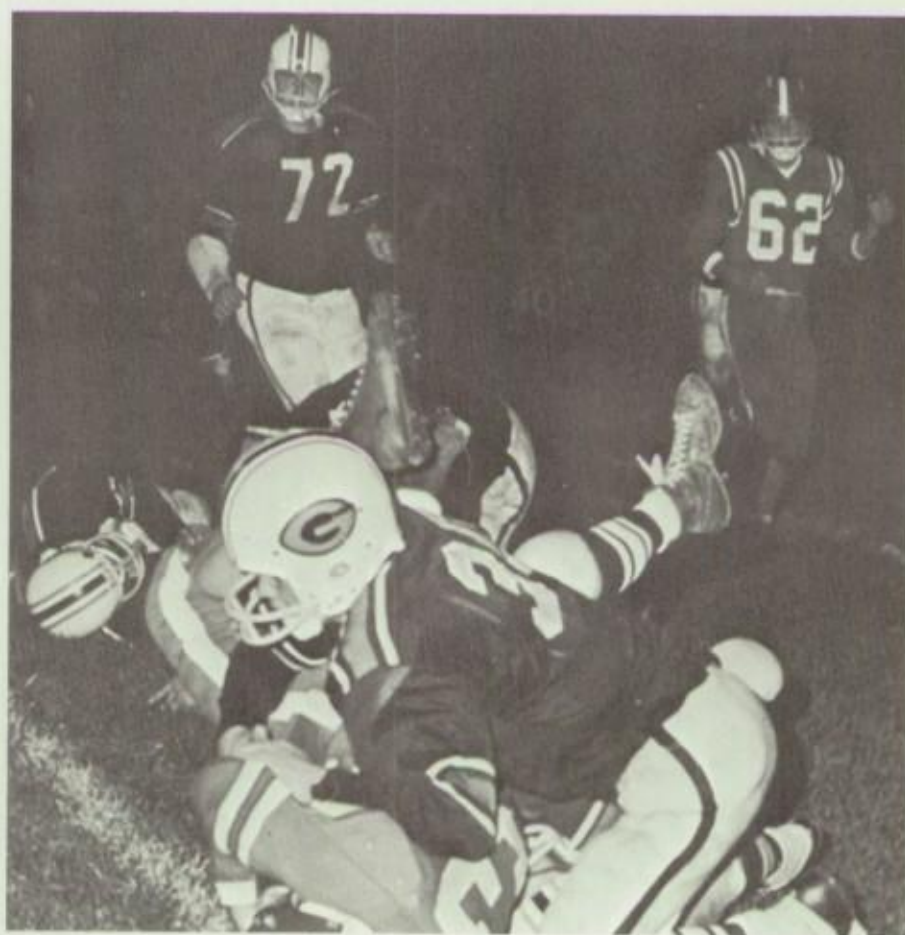

The Time Is Now . . .

Sports Now

The major extra curricular activity at Gibsonburg High School is sports. Not only does it concern students, faculty members and employees but the entire town. Basketball and Football have always been the most enjoyed by people, but this year Track has progressed.

Social Now

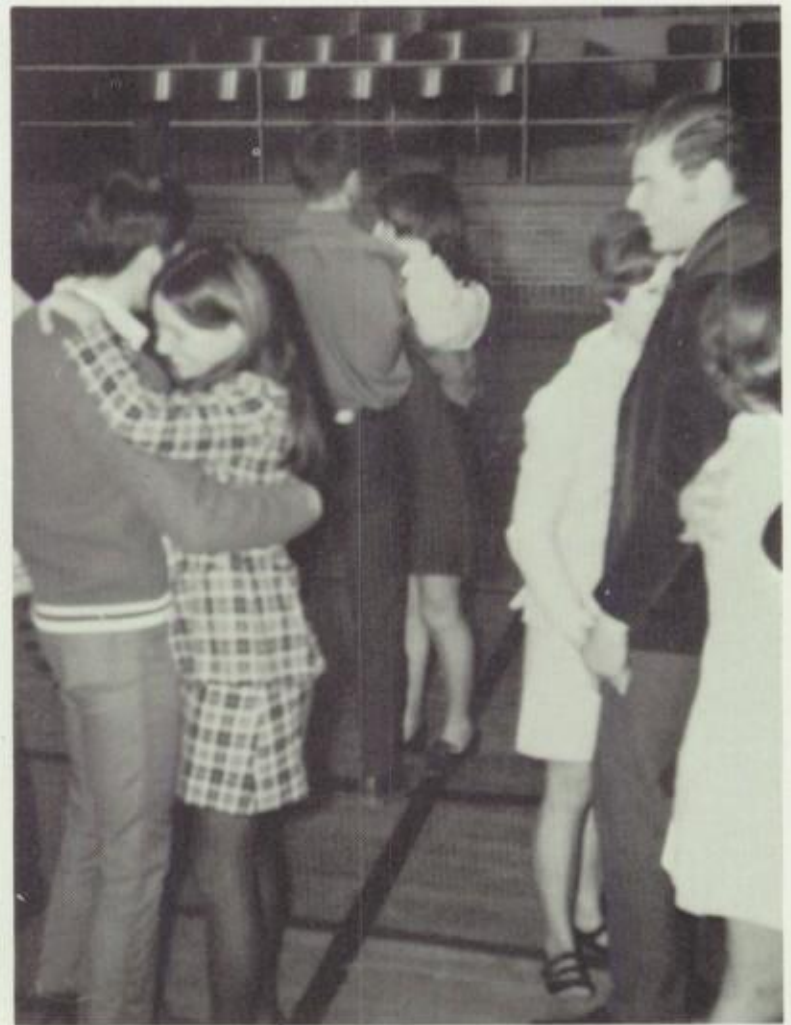

Completing a long day at school, students load up for the ride home.

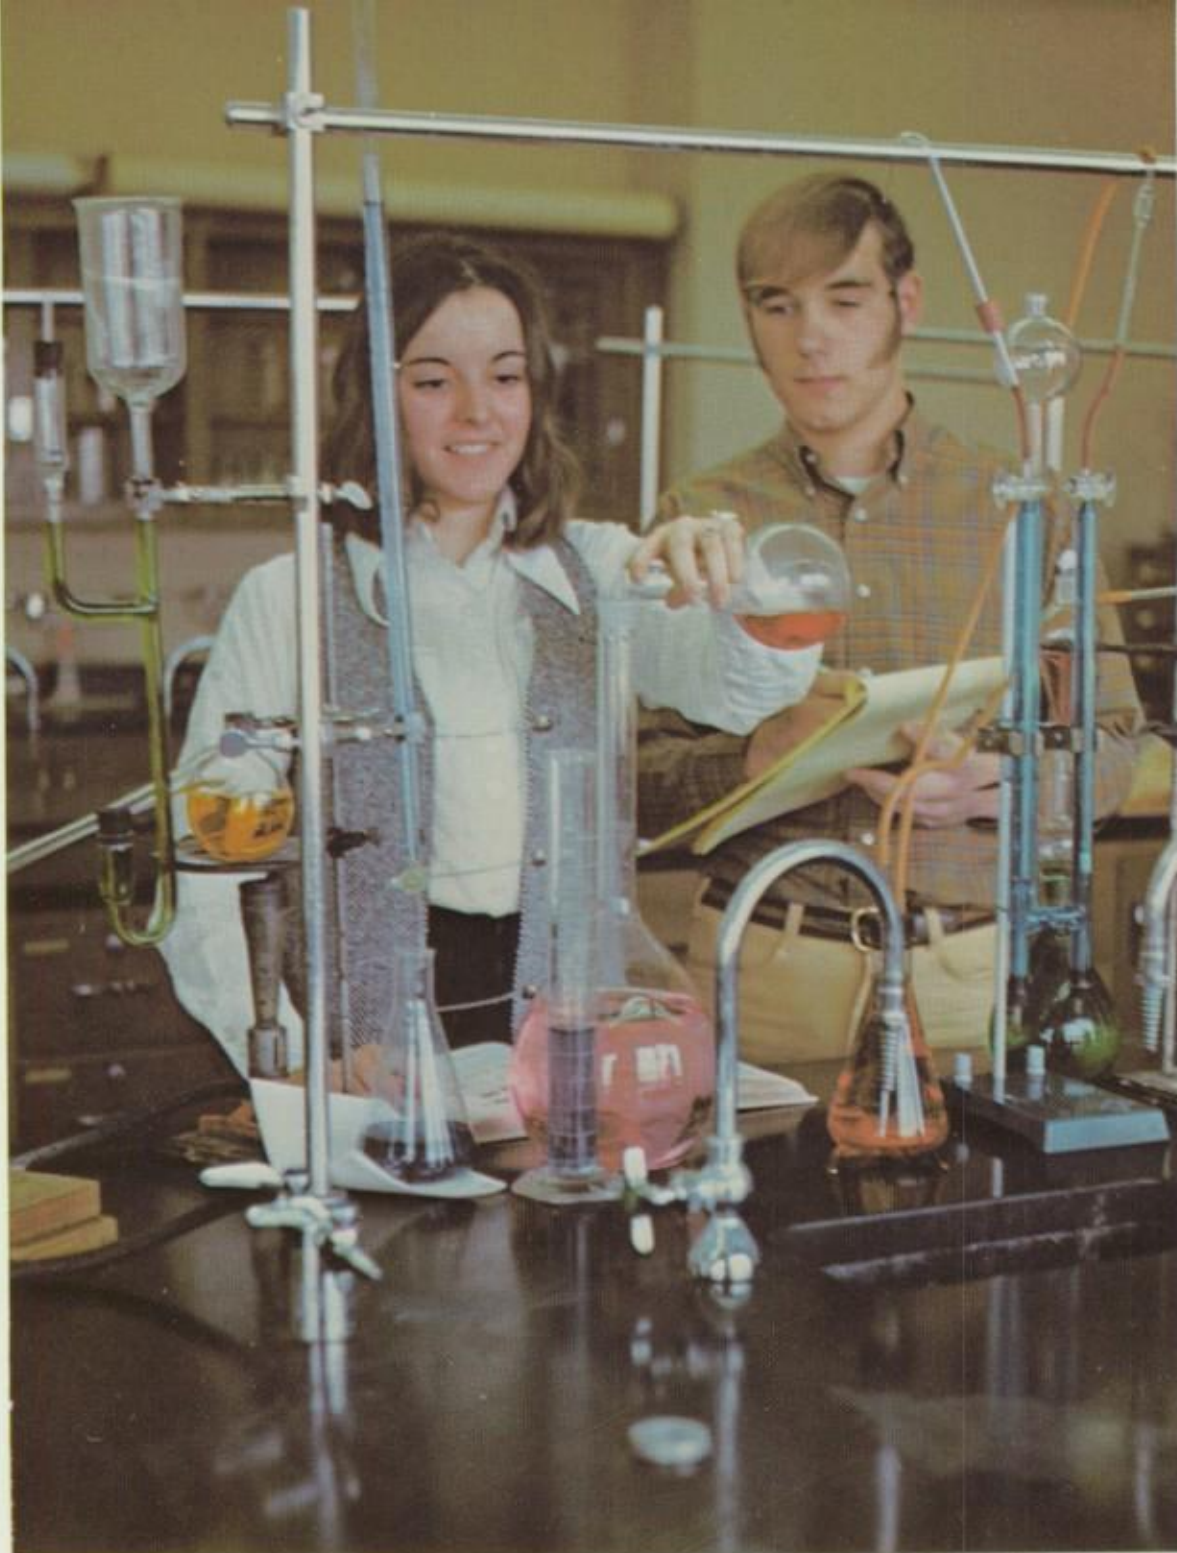

Everyone is patiently waiting for the game to start hoping for a Victory. A Bear victory.

Through this year many activities have taken place. Most of them have already been recognized. There are a few things that go by unnoticed because they are everyday happenings. Socializing is the most important element taught at G.H.S.

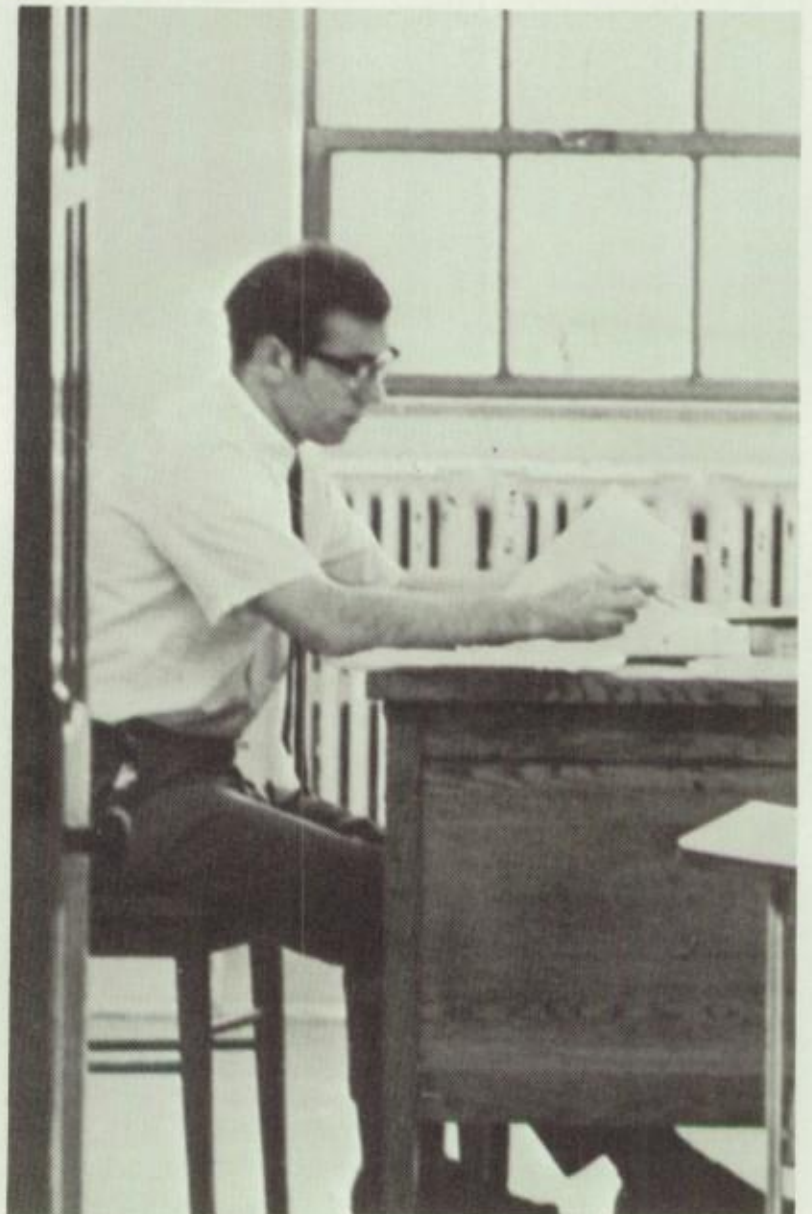

Clear away the rhetoric
And pursue at once.
Put down your Shakespeare
And start reading Dylan.
Release your urge to
Hesitate and begin immediately.
Now, forget the stale
Jokes and good memories
And position yourself
For today. You've all'
Heard the old policy
Now let them hear
Yours. For the time
Is now, not 1492,
Or 1776, or 1941,
But now; and today
Is something to
Be reckoned with...

Kevin Diels

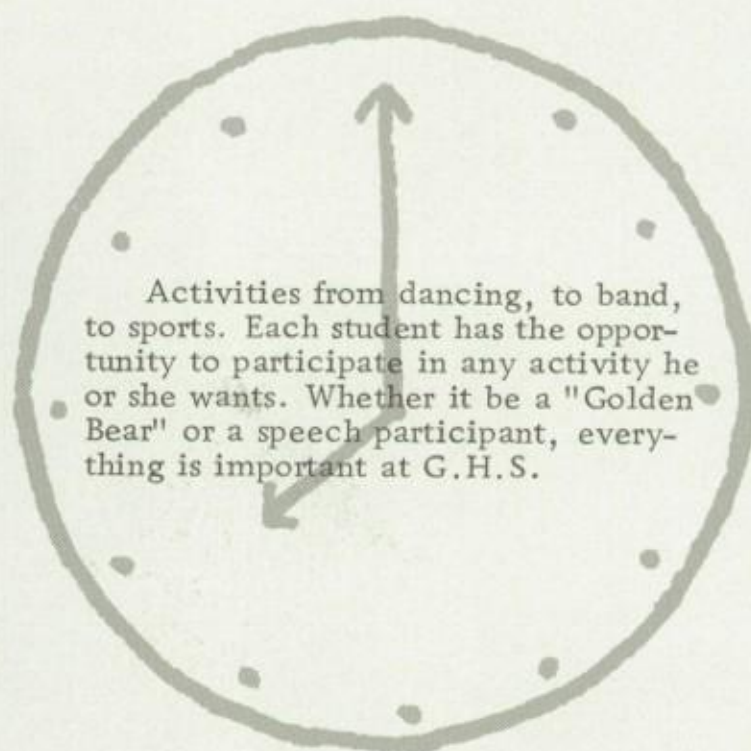

Classroom Now

This year many new courses have been added to the curriculum along with the ones that have previously been here. Students have the opportunity to choose the classes that are best suited for them. Classroom activity not only involves hard studying but occasional entertainment.

GAA Initiation day was a busy one for these girls.

Dolores Rapp, Kathy Holcomb, Bob Kayden and Steve Simcox were delegates from Gibsonburg High School to attend the annual Buckeye Girls and Boys State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The purpose of the Buckeye State is to train young people for the American way of government. The students were selected on their scholarship, leadership, mental alertness, and self-reliance.

The students learned about our county, city, and state governments. All agreed it was worth the time and effort spent on making this annual meeting a success.

SAC — Student Government

SAC: STANDING: P. Clark, M. Haubert, B. Hickman, J. Rapp, C. Balsizer, D. Deininger, D. Keller, T. La-Salvia, S. Miller. SITTING: B. Clark, Sec. J. Henline, Pres. J. Kaemming, V. Pres. A. Reinbolt, Treas. Mr. Freeborn, Advisor.

Student Council has accomplished much this past year under the leadership of President Jim Heline and Vice President Jack Kaemming, with the capable assistance of Faculty advisor Mr. Richard Freeborn.

Upon welcoming the students to the first day of classes that bright September morning of 1969, SAC proceeded to brighten the surroundings by presenting a carnation to every teacher.

As the year progressed SAC got into the swing of things with the elaborate Homecoming festivities.

This year Student Council established a system enabling those students who had a 3.0 average to be placed on the honor roll. In the preceding years only those who had all A's or B's made the High Honor and Honor roll.

SAC helped to ease the dress code by enabling girls to wear culottes. A better selection of ice cream was made in the cafeteria by the help of the Student Council. Bake sales and slop days were held throughout the school year to help ease the everyday routine of school life.

SAC had great ideas for Homecoming night, and helped to make it a success.

Mrs. Parkinson warns Rev. and Mrs. Doss that the church is upset about their children's shenanigans.

Trouble is developing in the romance of Nan Johnson and Donny Doss.

The final touches of make-up are applied to Dolores Rapp by Lucy Ianero.

FAMILY NOBODY WANTED

The Doss' family poses for an interesting portrait.

THE FAMILY NOBODY WANTED is the description of an actual family trying to live and be accepted in society and running into more problems than the usual American family would have. Even though a lot of the play is fictional - a part is actually true.

It is always a little difficult for a fellow to present his best girl to his family, but Don's problem is unique. He is wild about an extremely attractive girl who is just a trifle on the stuffy side. The girl's parents are charming and wealthy, but they are definitely on the stuffy side. It is time for the girl to "meet the family," and here's the problem:

Don has a lot of brothers and sisters - some are part Japanese, Balinese, Mexican, and full-blooded American Indian! Don's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Doss, had adopted these various children when they found that they couldn't have any of their own. They grew up together, all a part of one family. And now Don, the oldest, is asked to deny these brothers and sisters for the sake of the one girl that matters to him. The stirring resolution provides for an enchanting and humorous comedy with an undercurrent that says something important.

Ted, whose ancestry is Spanish and Filipino, is hurt because someone called him a "spik". Alex and Rita are shocked.

Members of Mr. Reed's industrial arts class work on a stage door.

'School Spirit' Is

Pam Williams was chosen by the Student Body to reign over the Homecoming festivities as the 1969 Homecoming Queen. Her Court consisted of Senior attendants Leanne Gerwin and Linda Shoemaker, Junior attendant Mary Seem, Sophomore attendant Judy Lepley, and Freshman attendant Kathy Hofelich.

Homecoming Theme

The Senior float is the winner of the SAC prize.

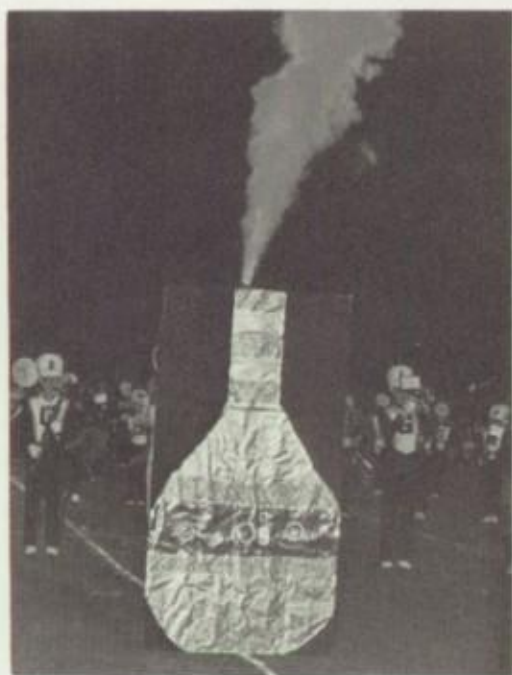

Homecoming '69 featured many new highlights thanks to the ideas and work of SAC. The festivities began when a parade composed of floats representing classes, organizations, and businesses, antique cars, the band, and of course the Queen and her Court, moved through downtown Gibsonburg and ended at the football field. The crowning of the Queen during pre-game ceremonies, an appropriate performance by the band at half-time, and a victory for GHS made Homecoming a complete success.

Spirit is displayed on this old car.

Community organizations take part in the parade.

The band presents a bit of magic at half-time.

The Bears make Homecoming a complete success by defeating Woodmore - 22-12.

Enthusiastically Pam cheers the team on to victory.

Seniors Enjoy A

The Senior class trip was somewhat out of the ordinary this year. They traveled to Irish Hills, a ski resort in Michigan, on March 2. Although snow was not abundant, there was enough for everyone to have an enjoyable day of skiing. In the evening they dined out, after which they went to see the movie, "Paint Your Wagon."

Ready to take off at the top of the slope are Nancy Diab, Pam Williams, and several other girls.

Even Mr. Kniesly joins in the fun.

Gary Beeker begins to look like a pro.

Bill Beeker gets a free ride up the hill.

Day At Ski Resort

A pause before taking off is enjoyed by this group of Seniors.

A sprained ankle puts an end to Sandy Hofelich's skiing.

These three girls look as though they are having a great time.

Juniors Are Active In

On May 8 and 9 the Juniors presents their play, "Erasmus With Freckles," a comedy in three acts. It centers around the fact that Erasmus Leaf, a young boy, has a remarkable ability in mathematics. So remarkable that he finds a mistake in the figures of the Bank of America. The sudden fame and publicity he receives upsets the entire Leaf household, which by the way, is located on a retired ferryboat. A romance between Bob and Vina, various attempts by Cissy and Pandy to bring in money, and an exciting escape all contribute in making the play interesting. An excellent stage and a good job by the actors and actresses complete its success.

One highlight of the play is this discotheque scene.

Bob and Erasmus replay their amusing episode at the employment office for the others.

A foreign agent threatens Bob.

Erasmus takes his turn at the wheel.

A happy ending is reached as Bob and Vina embrace.

May With Play And Trip

Everyone seems to be enjoying the ride back.

As tradition will have it, the Junior Class travels to Put-in-Bay on May 25 for their trip. A wet but fun ride on a ferryboat, a tour of Perry's monument, and an afternoon of strolling and bicycling around the island make up an enjoyable day for everyone.

It looks as though Cathy and Pat are a little wet.

Clowning around plays a big part on the trip.

A balancing act by the water front is performed by this group of Juniors.

Up, Up, And Away Is Theme

Saturday night, May 23, the Junior Class proudly presents the Junior-Senior Prom entitled Up, Up and Away. The center attraction of the prom is a huge balloon attached to a basket. Surrounding this are sections representing different parts of the world. The South Sea Islands, the Orient, Egypt, France, and Holland are the five countries displayed. The band provides music within a booth representing the U. S. Much hard work is rewarded as the members of the two classes, with their dates, enjoy an evening of dancing and fun.

The Eiffel Tower and a French cafe make up the corner of France.

The South Sea Islands wouldn't be complete without a tiki.

A camel mural highlights Egypt's section.

Holland is portrayed with a windmill.

A Chinese statute within a red pagoda gives the Oriental effect.

Mrs. Weaver, the prom advisor, and her husband, pose beneath the balloon.

Of Junior-Senior Prom

Several couples enjoy this dance.

A small combo provides the music.

Servers from the Orient are attired in kimonos.

Jim Keiser and date take their turn in the basket.

Dolores and Steve seem to be having an enjoyable time.

The girls from Egypt wear harem costumes while the boys wear simple robes.

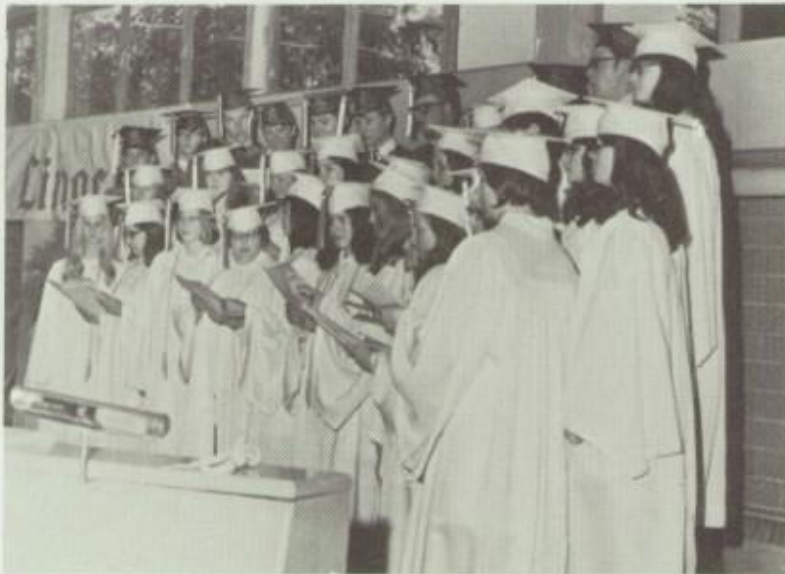

Typical French clothing is worn by these Sophomores.

Seniors Graduate

Graduation day comes on May 31 this year as ninety-six seniors receive diplomas. The highlight of the Commencement exercises is an address entitled "Tomorrow" by Dr. Ray A. Horn from the Ohio Department of Education. Included in the program are the traditional speeches by the Valedictorian and Salutatorian, a presentation by the Senior Choir, the presentation of Scholarship Medals, the presentations to the Valedictorian and Salutatorian, and of course, the presentation of diplomas.

Seniors receive their diplomas from Mr. Dale Helle, President of the Board of Education.

The Senior Choir presents "A Wonderful Day Like Today."

Mixed emotions are seen on the faces of these Seniors.

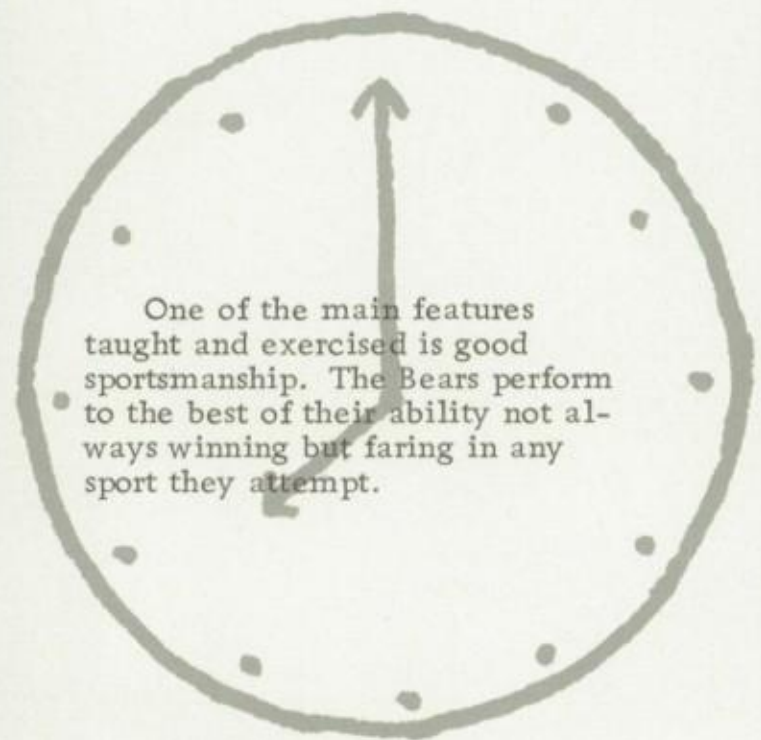

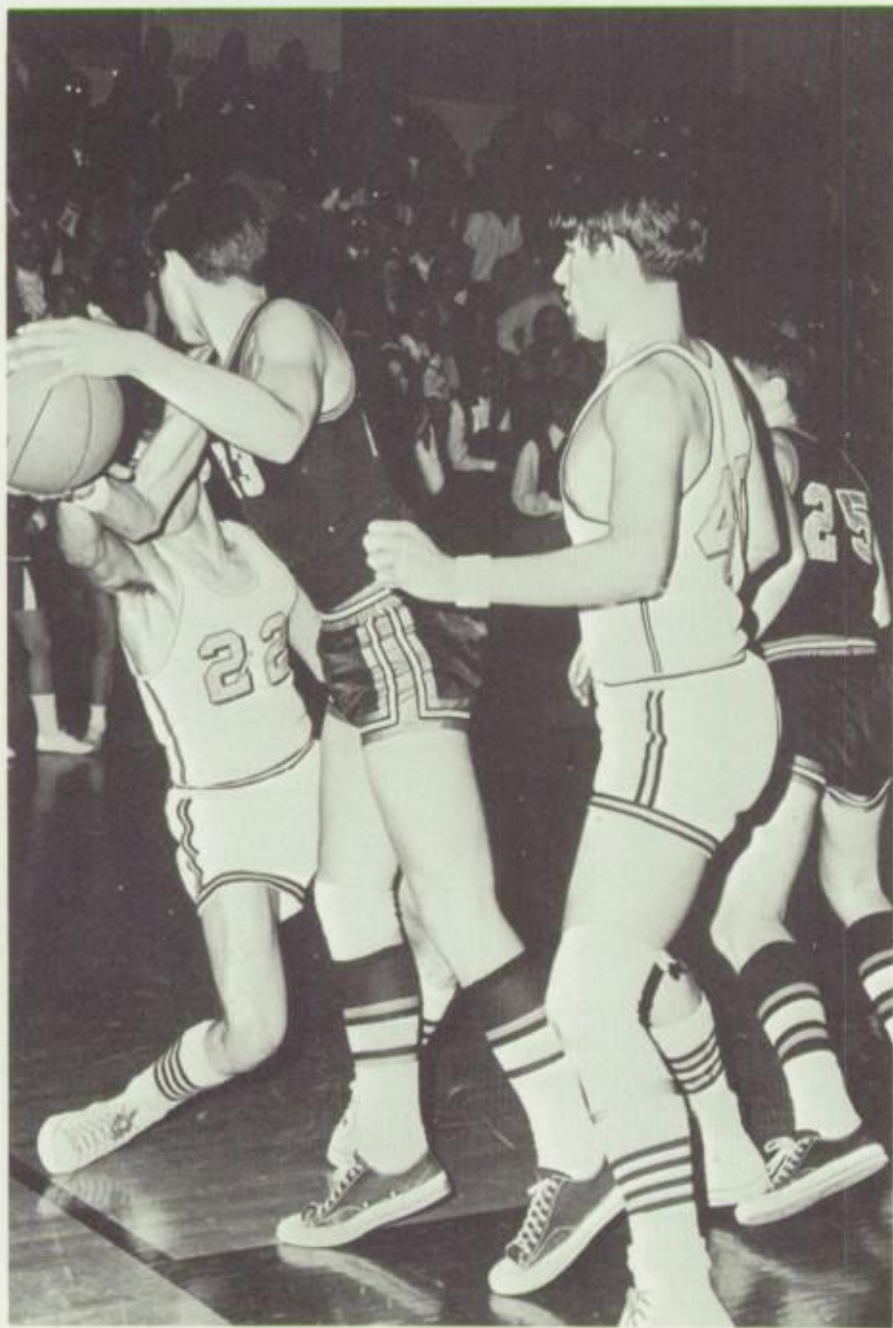

Beth Clark and Leanne Gerwin pause a moment before entering the auditorium.

ACADEMICS

The faculty at G.H. S. try to make school enjoyable for the students. They teach to the best of their ability hoping that somewhere each and every student learn what they haven't been able to teach and seek and find exactly what is in store for them.

Superintendent's Message

Superintendent: MR. HERB REDDING

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 1970:

It is timely to reflect upon your twelve years of elementary and secondary education. The citizens of the Gibsonburg Exempted Village School District, including your parents and school personnel, have made great efforts to provide a quality and comprehensive educational program to provide for your capabilities and interests. You have profited greatly from your extensive curricular and co-curricular experiences.

Your valuable academic achievements and worthwhile activity accomplishments have been expressions of your gratitude. Your "Alma Mater," which includes the Vanguard vocational division, has provided the educational incentive and foundation for your future educational opportunities and careers.

The success of this educational venture will be measured by your career accomplishments, by your loyal contributions to society and to your country, and in general, by the goodness of your lives.

Congratulations on your graduation and Best Wishes for a happy and successful future.

Sincerely,
Herb J. Redding
Superintendent

Principal's Message

Principal: MR. FRED KNIESLY

To the Class of 1970:

The students, staff, and the spirit of Gibsonburg High School wish you well as you terminate your student days here. Neither you nor the school that you are leaving behind is the same because of the time that you have spent here. The Class of 1970 leaves its mark through every individual of the class that has studied, worked, played, and competed here to maintain the high principles of sportsmanship, creativity, and scholarship that are the foundation of Gibsonburg High School.

In turn you members of the Class of 1970 have been molded into young men and young women that can think, that can create, that can lead. From this time on we expect you to individually maintain the Gibsonburg heritage and to develop adult lives filled with happiness, success, and meaningfulness.

*Sincerely,
Frederick H. Kniesly*

CLASSES

Juniors Anxiously Await

Only half the Junior class attends school in Gibsonburg. The other half go to Vanguard for their first year. The school year begins with the excitement of receiving their class rings. Throughout the winter months they take many tests, which help the students determine their future career and life. When spring arrives the Juniors present their play, "Erasmus with Freckles." After the play is completed, they prepare a prom with the theme, "Up, Up and Away" for the seniors. For the remaining days of the year, they anxiously await vacation and their final year.

Sophomores Gain Experience

It is during this grade that Sophomores must decide whether to enter Vanguard Vocational school or stay at G.H.S. All sophomores are required to take a Health course, and many sophomores are able to take Driver Ed. courses. This is the first class to ever receive their class rings during the sophomore year. The sophomores' talent and new ideas add a lot to the high school programs.

L. Hoffman and J. Ward chat by their locker.

Something in this Driver's Ed. class causes G. Maddy and G. Stevenson to laugh.

These girls drill in their Typing II class.

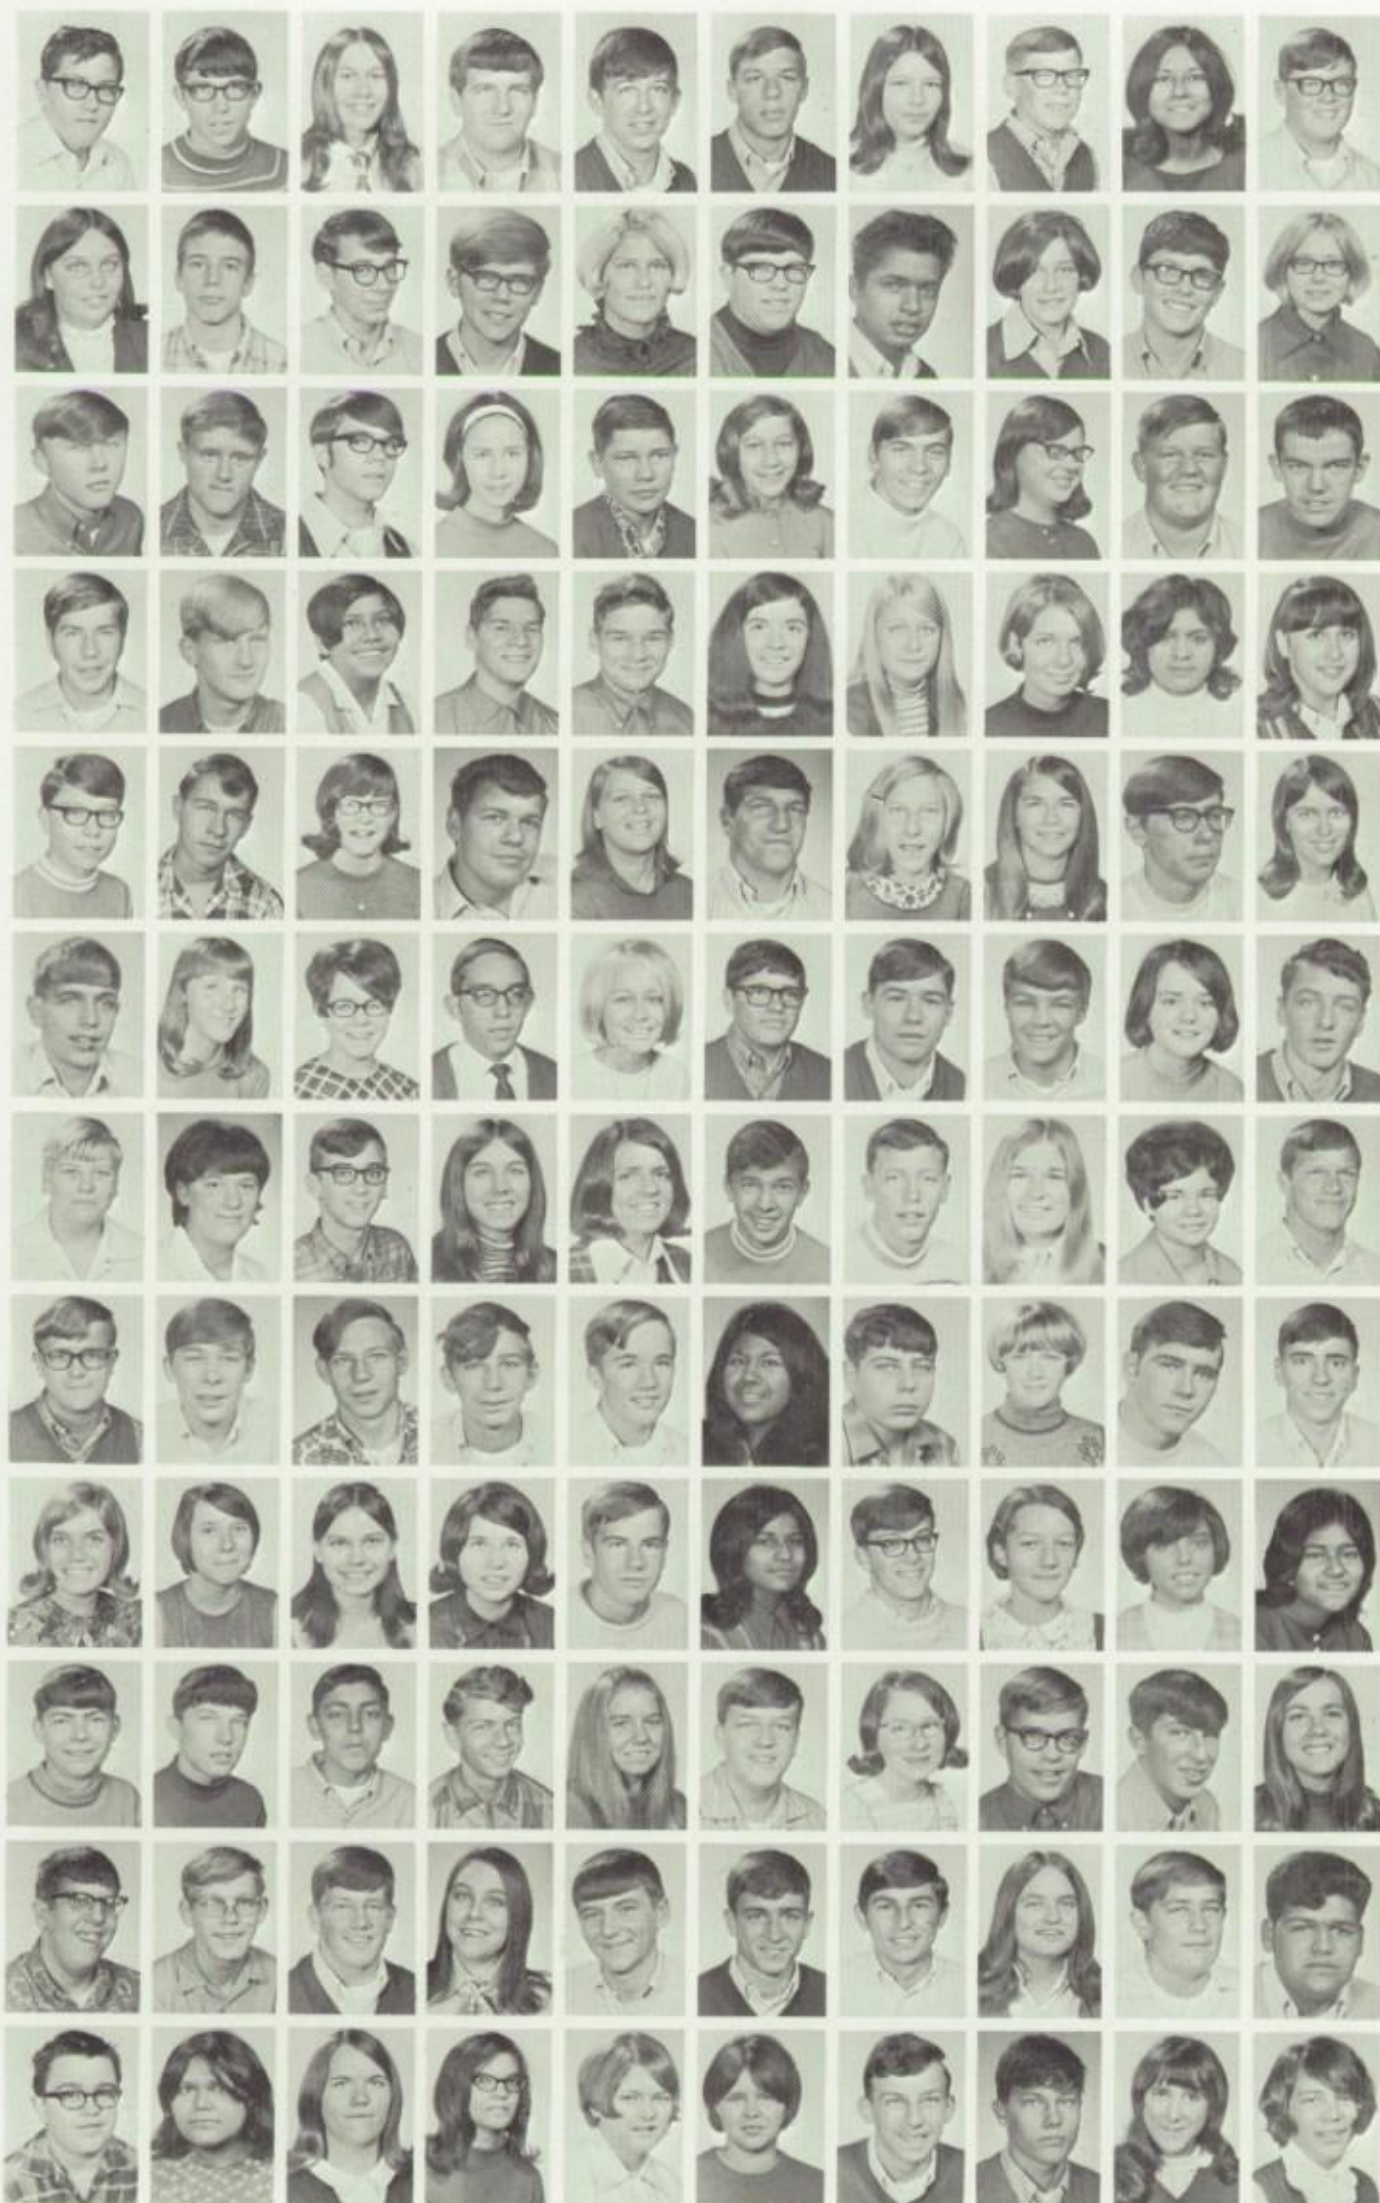

Class Officers: Amy Simcox, Treas. ; Kevin Diels, V. Pres. ; Mark Foos, Pres. ; David Dam-schroder, Hist. ; and Patty Reimer, sec.

Freshmen Enter The

The Freshman enter the High School scene by first deciding which course to follow--Academic, Business, or Vocational. Many Freshmen take part in high school activities by joining GAA, FFA, FHA, FBLA, or Science Club. They learn that competition is now greater in football, basketball, baseball, track and band.

Class Officers: Linda Manoylovich, Treas.; Pam Picciuto, V. Pres.; Gary Schlea, Pres.; and Kim Foos, Sec.

A typing course is required of all Freshmen.

There is something new to learn each day.

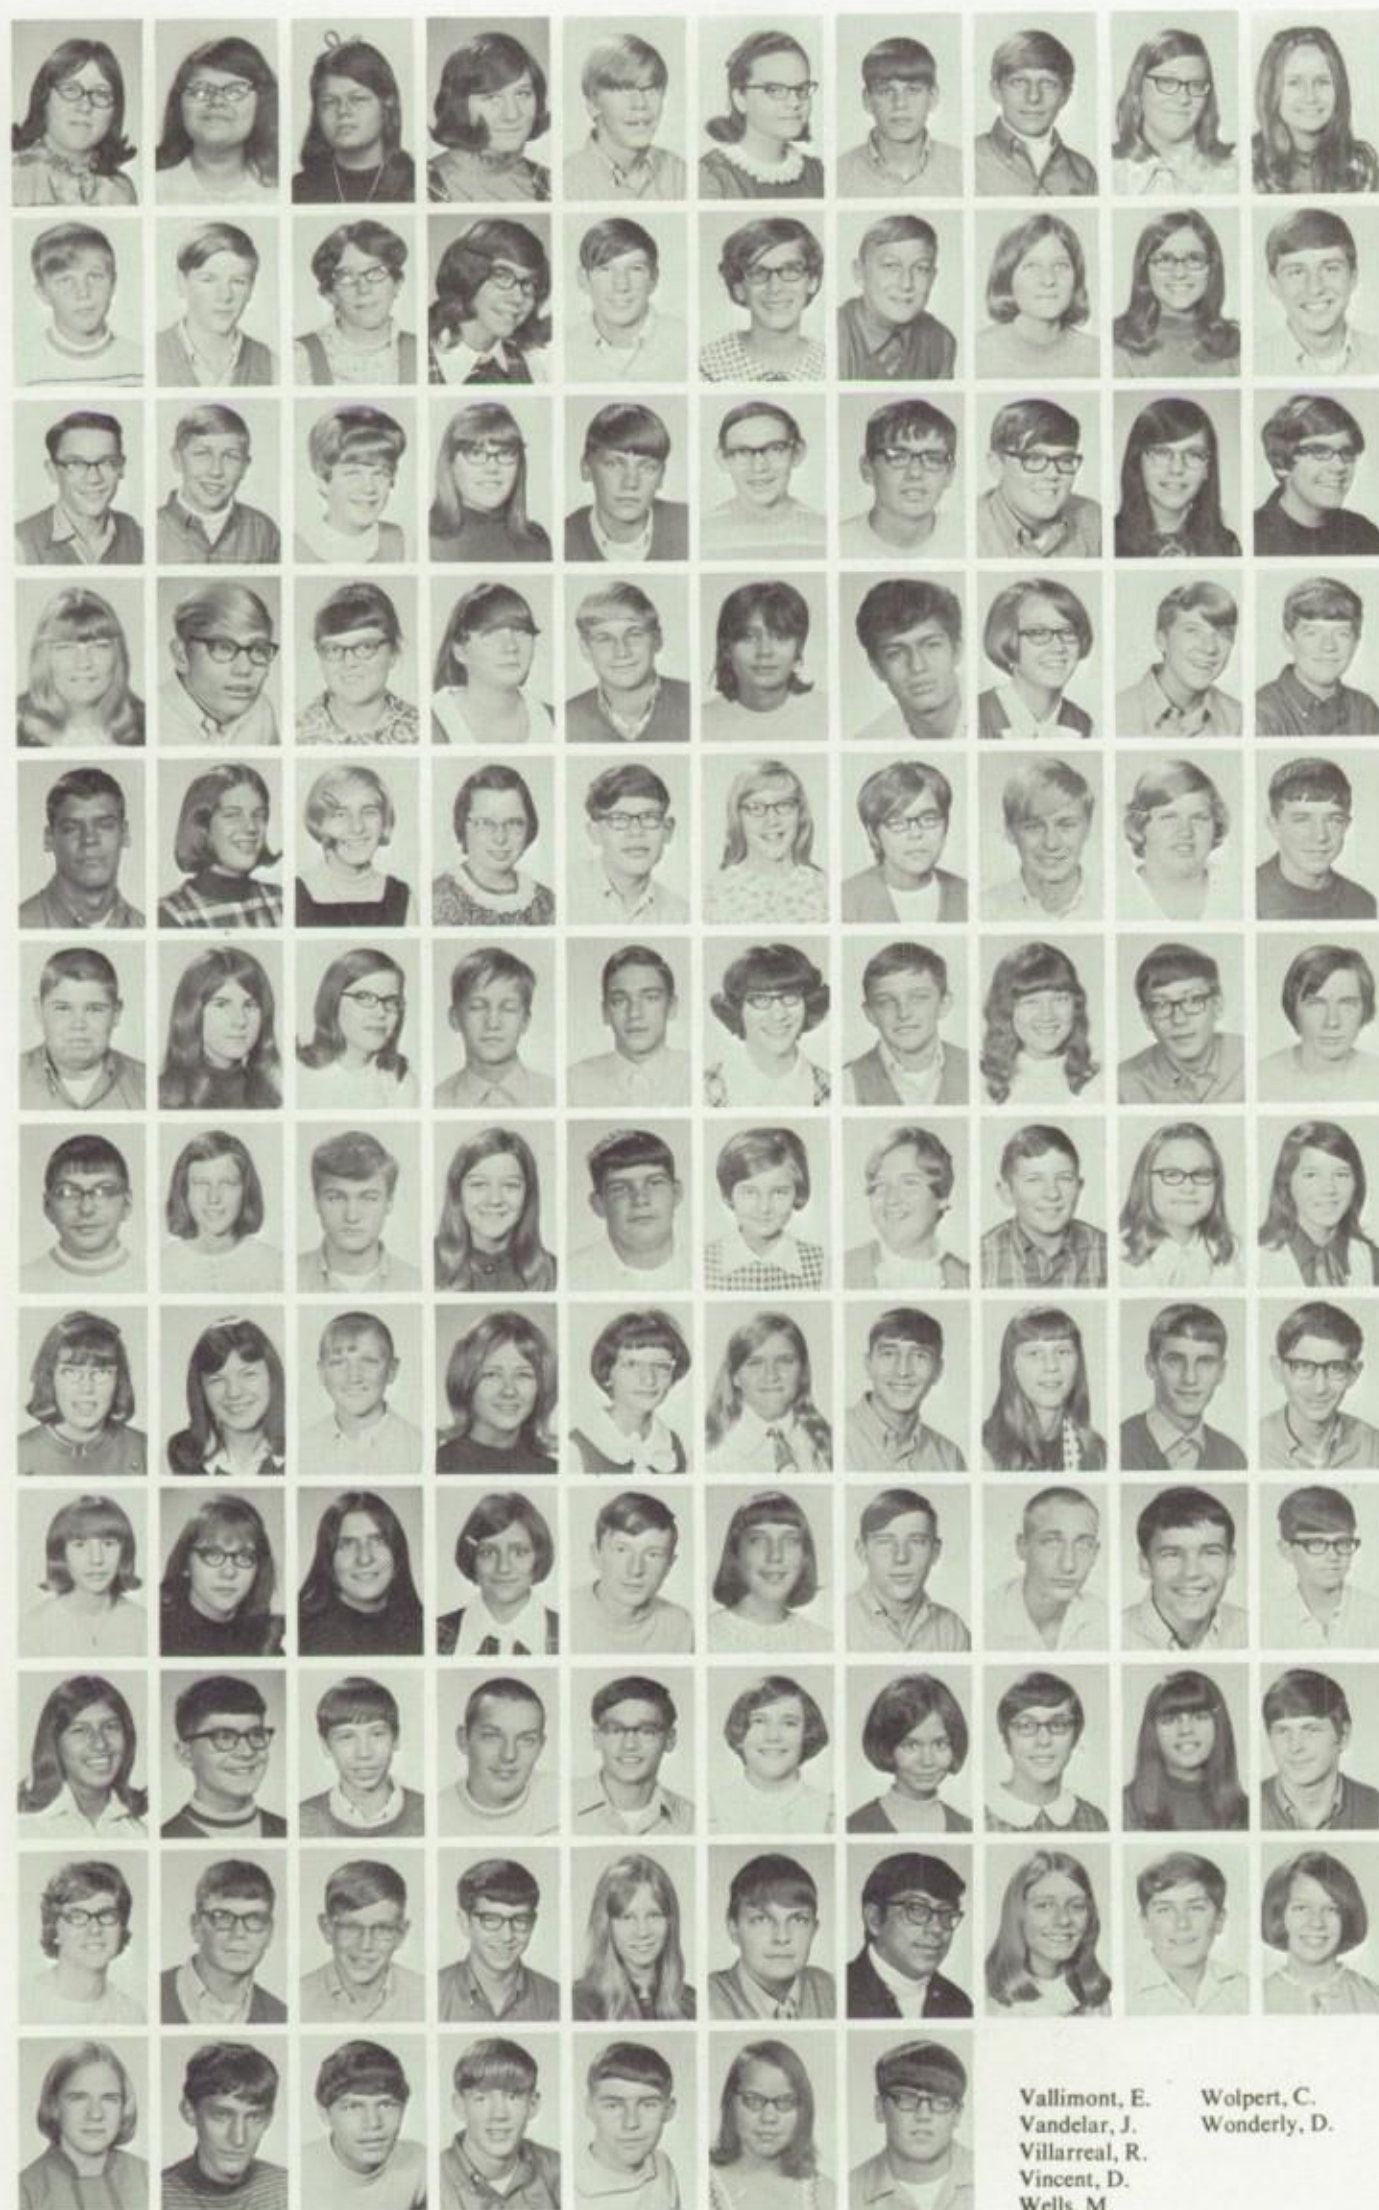

A little laughter helps relieve all school tension.

J. Foster, L. Cicanese and D. Heilman share English thoughts.
